7 Star Muscle scored a strong second spot three starts back and has scored two straight wins after that. He won easily in the last run and has a good chance. 1 Västerbo Razzia won directly for the new trainer in the last run and has one run under her belt after a short break. Early choice if she handles this number one. 9 The Last Trapper starts for the second time over the short distance and comes from an outstanding victory on Bergsåker in the first attempt. 8 Diamond From Hill won over the short distance last year and handles this distance well. Poor number though.

1 Ask Galant did not trot well three starts back but has come back very well after a long pause with two wins lately. 4 Kruson has good skills but gallops a lot. He won directly after a layoff for the new trainer in the last run and might be on the way up now. 3 Guli Greta has won lately when avoiding a mistake and chases the fourth victory in four months. 7 Ethel has one run under the belt now and should be even better now than when winning the seasonal debut.

4 Blues Brother has won twice from outside the leader and once in the lead. He should be in front directly and is an early contender. 8 Young Mistress has won two out of three starts for this trainer. If she is at her best she is good for this class. Scored a nice victory two starts back. 7 One For All comes from a good fifth spot. Is used to start behind the gate but handles this circular start too. 10 Sally's Love has three out of four wins when driven by the trainer.

4 Drivbest scored three good wins in a row last spring. He has got one run under his belt now after a layoff and is on the way up. Our pick. 8 Gullviva likes this distance. Tricky number but will fight for victory with the right journey. 2 Reine W. scored the latest win over the short distance and this starting method. He can open fast and faces nice conditions here. 7 Hammarns Qaramell has three wins with this driver and they should not be overlooked here.

6 Rezorb Hangover has been competing for this driver since September and has done well with two wins lately. This short distance suits him well and the stable is in fine form. 9 Global Boost got a tough final lap in the last run but kept up the pace well and has to be considered. 2 Beawinner has three wins in the lead. All four victories have been scored in front. Early contender without an error. 8 Bird Lane met tough opponents last year and should not be overlooked in this company even if the horse is not used to this distance.

13 Loveyouecus scored two wins last year from far back last year so this number is not a big handicap. He should have a good chance with the right journey. 14 Spartan Cougar uses to win during the autumn or winter and likes this time of the year. Nearly all his wins were scored on Bergsåker. 6 Zorocco Yamoz finished to victory in the last run. Same distance and starting method today and has to be considered with the right trip. 7 Ryjet is not reliable but the driver knows the horse well. Possible without a mistake.
