Volt 2140

8 Beachcomber has been performing well under new ownership this year and has shown great potential for his earnings. Suitable opposition and the horse to beat. 4 Lover Brodde has also had a resurgence for the new trainer and was strong in his win last time, after a tough journey. Has good ability there, but he can be temperamental. 2 Rendez Vous comes from a stable in good form and two wins at the start of the season are appreciated. Strong and tough horse that should be taken seriously. 3 Lampard has been sporadically racing. Capable and could be dangerous.

5 Fakserling won seven out of eleven races last year but has had a tougher time this year facing tougher opponents. Comes from a splendid win and on the way up now. Top chance. 1 Trollbackens Otur dictated the pace in the lead in the last run and was never threatened and won easily. He leads for a long time here. 2 Neslands Jerven has competed well under the saddle lately but also a positive surprise in the sulky race before that. In full form. 4 Saganatt was just closely beaten in the last run and interesting now with frequent starts. A contender.

A great class in this stayer race. 6 Under Armour started the year off in the best possible way with a win in the latest race in his debut this year, and with a race under his belt, he's the horse to beat. Is all-round. 2 Kirby Starlake has taken two straight wins in Sweden, and the way he sprinted to victory in the V75 race two starts back was impressive. 1 Itso Sisu trotted well in the latest race and looked better than ever. He has the stamina for the distance and will lead for a long time. 8 Lucifer Sam has sharp peaks, and the long distance is suitable for him. He will be in the mix in a faultless race.

6 Bottnas Idol made a fault already before the start in the latest race. A robust horse who won a V75 final three starts ago. Top chance. 4 Jello W. has strength as a weapon and is not afraid to do some work himself on the way. Must be ranked high in this company. 8 Ture L.A. is good for this class. He made a mistake in the first turn in the last run after a pause, but repaired it nicely. 1 Red Hot Roadster has a good starting position and faces nice conditions money-wise. He held up well last time after a journey outside the leader.

1 Nyras Lars R. has won both his starts this year. He won with a strong finish two starts ago and won comfortably from the lead in the last start. He's a strong contender. 3 Alessio has the right attitude and good ability. He would have finished well last time if not for the mistake towards the end. He had three straight wins before that. 11 Smile Silvio is a very talented trotter who made a good impression in his win after a break last time out. He has five wins in eight starts. 2 Rapid Pal galloped at the start last time. He ended last year with three straight wins and should be considered quite early here.

5 Rackham is a tough horse who was decent in his comeback race last time out. He likely benefited from that race and could be hard to stop in this race. 6 Dear Friend hadn't raced in Sweden in a while before her last start, where she finished strongly to win at Solvalla. She'll likely be an early challenger in this race. 7 Cicero T.G. is returning after a break. He has really good ability and was a sharp second behind San Moteur at Åby on May 7th. 1 Night Brodde has a suitable starting position since he opens quickly. He's capable of performing well and should be in the mix in this comeback race.

She could very well solve this task. 6 Green Mamba has not won for a while, but she has shown that she is capable of performing at a high level. She gave a good impression last time out when finishing with some energy saved. 4 Tour Eiffel won with ease in Denmark two starts ago and finished strongly to grab second place last time out. She should be considered. 7 Special Topmodel is used to tough competition. She has a good number behind the gate and has one run under her belt after a pause.

She won with a strong finish on January 18th and has won her last two races from the lead.
