Volt 2140

1 Vision of Gideon has steadily improved and has not really been threatened in four straight victories. Easy win from the front last time out and will likely lead for a long time here. 2 Jongleur is a nice type of horse who was matched against top-level competition last year. He still has some money left to his capacity and should be taken seriously in his seasonal debut. 9 Prosperous S. is a horse we have expected more from, and from the inside post, he can immediately make contact with the front-runners. A contender. 4 Julietta Doc has been in good form this winter but has been underestimated by the betters. Outsider.

RACE 5, V64-2 — Auto 2140

1 With Pleasure is a very nice trotter who has made things look easy and has also finished among the top two in all four of his races. Can do better than last time out and is tipped to win. 6 Jopp was tough in his win from outside the leader last time out and trotted even better. Continues to improve and is one of the top two contenders here. 5 J.S.Camaro has shown exciting potential and with some money left to his capacity, he's another horse to reckon with in this class. First start of the year, and should be considered early behind the favorite. 2 Maestro Bianco won in his debut and was also good in his last race. On the way up.

RACE 6, V64-3 — Auto 2640

7 Adventure Ahead has had a great start to the season, winning a couple of races in impressive fashion. Continues to show good form and is facing suitable competition for another win. 6 Oh Ah Kennedy has faced tougher competition, but hasn't quite found the right form in this year's races. Has good gate speed and is facing a more suitable field now. 3 Brat Rod has had several good performances under the saddle lately. It's tougher for him to contend in sulky races, but he looks good today. 5 King Sir Raymond hasn't had the best luck but had plenty left in the tank two races ago.

RACE 7, V64-4

Auto 1640

8 Bradbee is a winner and a good horse in this class when he's fresh and feeling good. He usually gets offensive journeys and likes to be up front. Has a good chance. 6 Carlitos Venere showed good gate speed in his win from the front two races ago. Back to an open post position now and on a suitable short distance. 11 Being Jolly was good in his winning races last year and despite a break from competition, he's a horse to be respected. 12 Chang is not bad at all, and in case of good pace, his late kick could be strong. Could cause an upset.

RACE 8, V64-5

Auto 2640

3 Calamari is a classy horse who won over half a million last year after competing frequently in the V75. Although it's his seasonal debut, he's racing at a suitable distance and class, making him very hard to beat. 6 Hobart also has toughness after competing in tough V75 races. He's reloaded for a new season and challenges our favorite. 4 Persos Otello is a tough horse who's best suited for longer races. He has also got a break, and his form is a bit uncertain. 8 Sato faces nice conditions money-wise, but the task is tough with this number eight.

RACE 9, V64-6

Auto 2140

6 Jest won four races as a three-year-old and also competed against tough horses in age-group races while maintaining a high level. The horse to beat in this seasonal debut. 10 Lady Dee finished strongly during the autumn and winter before the layoff. She should be taken seriously in her seasonal debut. 7 Henessi Hill put in a good effort from the outside the leader two races ago. Fast and could reach a good position despite this starting post. 11 Somethingroyal is a good horse for this field. Has not been successful lately but could surprise.
