3 Järvsö Kurt finished nicely a third place on March 20 (showing 1.23 for the last 800 meters) and won easily despite a tough trip in the race after. 8 Fräcke Prins was sharp in a victory three starts ago over the current distance. A clearly capable horse, likely to be early after the break. 6 Höstbo Wille has finished strongly as third and second in the last two starts and will now be driven by Ulf Ohlsson in the sulky. 2 Mino Tabac has shown good form lately. He finished well last time out and was unable to find room at the end on March 20.

3 Fia Godiva was narrowly beaten last time out, in only her second start after a longer break. This looks like a good task for her and she is our top pick. 14 Conrads Ballerina didn't impress last time out, but she has shown ability before and finished strongly for fourth two starts back. She is an early contender here. 9 Alabama U.B. has one win (21/12) over the shorter distance. She finished well to third two starts back and is a strong contender for a place finish here. 7 Makeupyourmind makes her first start of the year here. She showed promise with a second-place finish at Solvalla in November.

11 Melinda has won four out of nine starts in her career, and in her last race, she galloped at the end but still had a chance to win. She is a strong contender. 7 Teknopuma finished fourth in the Norwegian Sto-Kriteriet in her last race, with a promising performance. She could be ready for a win in this comeback race. 5 Wilda Anita has not raced for a while but recorded a good time for this class in her second-to-last race, and cannot be overlooked.

11 Global Lover is back after a break. A capable horse with good stamina, used to facing tough opposition. Could be tough to beat here. 15 Twigs Got U. has had two races after a break and has good capacity for this class, with ten wins in 40 starts so far. 6 Bajaro B.R. is good when he competes at his best. He held the pace well last time as second and is likely to be in the mix. 4 Poppy Fighter can do better than what he has shown lately, with four wins in 17 starts. An outsider.
