10 Global Confession has seven wins in 20 attempts, finished strongly to victory three starts ago, and is a hot contender in this comeback. 12 Honfleur Mearas has not started in a while either, has the right attitude, and is a winning candidate. 5 Precious Thing scored a strong second place two starts ago and put in some sharp performances last year. A fairly early contender. 4 Hunting Widow finished well to second in the last Solvalla race a bit behind the winner (the race was won by capable Southwind Boko).

6 Jackie Jaam is back after a break. Ended last year with two straight wins in fine style from the lead, gets the top vote. 3 Courtney Hadwin failed last time out, but finished well the race before (seasonal debut) and has shown good ability for this class. 4 Nena Barosso took over the lead after half a lap two starts ago and pulled away easily to the finish. Must be considered with a chance to win here. 7 Abel Lock scored a good second spot two starts back and in the last run after a break, he had energy left but got locked in.

3 Listas Champion is the top pick despite the long layoff. Opens up quickly and has shown good capacity. 7 Get Ahead ended last year with an easy wire-to-wire victory. Was a decent fifth from the lead after a layoff last time out. 1 Eau de Vie Eagra has a good position and has good skills. Made an early mistake in the last seasonal debut, should be competitive here. 6 Tumbling Dice got locked in with a lot of energy left on December 30th and followed up with an easy win, taking the lead towards the final turn.

5 Mellby Kaliber won easily despite a break for three starts ago and was a good second despite a break last time out. Well-bred and top chance. 2 Jocelyn B.R. broke stride in the seasonal debut but failed in the last run. Had a good season last year with four wins in nine starts, early contender. 4 Toscana Southwind made an early mistake in the last start while trying to open quickly with the circular start. Impressed with an easy win three starts ago. 6 Chic is a talented horse and raced well last time out with a strong third-place finish at Solvalla despite a tough trip.

5 Round Cube hasn't been able to get it right lately. Showed some really good performances last autumn and is our top pick. 7 Ekas Zalming made a mistake on the final backstretch last time out. Scored two strong wins in a row before that and must be ranked high here. 8 J.S.Peaky Blinders gave up completely in the final turn last time out. Has good capacity for this class and has won over the long distance. 10 Kathrine S.H. is a capable mare who has now got a race under her belt after a break. She won three straight races during October/November.

5 Kilimanjaro was decent on Vincennes last time out. Did not find room to the finish in the previous V75 start and won comfortably from the lead on March 2. 11 Electrical Storm would have had a good chance to win with clear run to the finish last time out, finished strongly to win the start before over the short distance. 12 Order to Fly is still going strong. Good finish to second behind Unico Broline last time out. 7 Final Dream did not show anything special after a break last time out, gave away the lead then. Fast out and is really good every now and then.
