3 Såstad Spretten lost valuable ground from the start last time out. Finished decently to a third place but can do better. Different conditions now, our pick. 7 Tysvær Viggo is difficult to assess after mistake in the last comeback. Is good enough to compete for the win here. 1 Valle Tidens is not the most stable on her legs, but has some speed for this class. With a good starting position, she could secure a place if she runs without errors. 2 Finnskog Rezer came back alright after a gallop in the last start. Not reliable, but could be a surprise if running without errors.

2 Nelson Catch Me is chasing his third straight win. He scored a strong victory in his last race but has had a short break since then. 3 Bør Bornson got a poor start last time and had to work hard on the outside of the leader. He was brave and is a contender for a top spot again. 5 G.G. d'Asti got locked in with plenty of energy left on the inside last time. With a better journey this time around, he is possible here. 1 La Toya B.R. is making her seasonal debut. She has a good starting position and it's interesting to see Lars Anvar Kolle as her driver. She should be watched.

2 Smedsrud Gnist has won seven of ten starts so far. He couldn't defend his lead all the way last time out, but this task looks nice. 3 Alf Martin did not trot perfectly on the home stretch last time and may have lost the win because of it. An early challenger behind the favorite. 6 Arverud Oda is searching for the right form. Now she has had two races after a long break and is good enough to win this. 1 Vimo Odin can do more than he has shown in this year's two starts. He is back after a small break - an outsider.

9 Mamie's Survivor has been first in all four of his starts, but galloped once on the finish line. He is the clear favorite despite this number on the second line. 11 Loveheart C.O. was brave in the lead two starts ago and is quite good for this class. If the favorite fails, he is possible here. 6 Caviar Junior has won two in a row and is developing nicely. He needs to set a new record, and we think he can do it. 7 Panzo is not chosen by Kristian Malmin this time. He has not been at his best at the end of races, but is speedy.

10 Gylden Joker got locked in with lots of energy left two starts ago. Impressive wins without being empty at the finish line - a good chance despite this number. 7 Spang Sirius is consistent and good. He is quick behind the gate and could find a good position despite this number. 1 Per B. should be on the way up with two races under his belt. He was far behind in his last start, but finished well a bit behind the winner. 8 Børke Loke has galloped a lot lately but he has the speed to compete in this class.

8 Icarus B.R. is in good form and faces nice conditions money-wise in this open race. With the right journey he could grab his second win of the year. 11 Lennon B.R. was outstanding two starts ago and brave from outside the leader in his last race. Tricky number, but an early contender with the right trip. 6 Monetary Canter won easily from the front in his comeback race. If he's taken that race correctly, he should be a force to be reckoned with again. 7 Wishful Order was involved in a tough opening last race and gave up towards the end. He should not be overlooked.

4 The One has not convinced lately and got a break so the form is a question mark. However, he faces quite easy opponents and is our top pick. 5 Yarrah Classic made an early mistake in the last run. He was consistent and steady before that and should be considered early this time. 9 Dragonfly had throat problems last time. He may need a race before his top form returns, but could get a nice defensive trip here. Contender. 1 Cartesio will go for the lead. He won six of 14 races last year and is better than the last results suggest.

10 Beads is trained by Frode Hamre again. He is a high-capable but also a somewhat troublesome horse, and very often he either wins or gallops - our top pick. 8 Feydeau Seven is a well-accomplished French horse making his debut for Hamre's stable. He participated in the Prix d'Amerique last year and is an early contender despite his starting position. 11 Hell Patrol demonstrated continued top form with a second-place finish at Klosterskogen last time out. He will need some luck with this number against some tough horses. 6 Ble du Gers seems to be on the way up, and sometimes he can do everything - an outsider pick.

1 Brilliant Minds can open fast and faces nice conditions here. She looked quite good as fifth last time and should have a good chance here. 3 Comtessa Du Chagny was brave in the lead as second on February 18th. Did not like the tight turns in the last race on Klosterskogen. 2 Nelson Bright Eagle is quick, but can go from any position and it may be difficult to pass our top pick from the start - should be considered. 10 Chloe' Degli Dei is possible if the pace would be a little too fast in front here.
