2 Selfmade Tile is a well-bred horse that qualified in a good time already as a two-year-old and put in a good final lap. Good chance in this debut. 4 Graces Bird showed promising ability when she qualified on March 15th, also handling a tight starting position, and should be considered early. 7 Freako is well-bred (full brother to talented Eireann) and has a good starting position in this debut. Has to be followed here. 6 Tiger Hill raced most of his debut race outside of the leader in home country Finland and scored a strong second spot.

8 Labyad Bros won his last race convincingly from the outside the leader. It was his first race after a long break and he is the top pick for this race. 9 Max Lane has won two out of five starts this year, both victories coming from the front. It's unlikely he will reach the front in this race, but he should still be considered early. 4 Bismillah Face returns from a break and makes his debut for a new trainer. The horse had a promising start as a two-year-old. 5 Vincent Dana finished strongly to fourth in his last race at Solvalla and should be considered quite early in this field.

10 Jaguni won easily in the front in his last race after switching trainers and a long break. He will likely be hard to beat in this race and is the top pick. 6 Saffiano returns after a break. He finished a decent fourth in his last race and won two straight races before that (tough journey on December 12th). Should be an early contender. 4 Erjon came back strongly after a mistake just before the final lap two starts back and finished well to second in the last run. 1 Västerbo Pentax finished third as the favorite in his last race. He should have a good trip with this number and could be in the mix in this race.

15 Miss Imperatrice is a highly promising trotter who started with five straight victories. Both strong and fast, she is a hot candidate for victory in her first race of the year. 7 All for Love won comfortably on February 15th, taking over the lead around the final turn. Early contender from a good starting position. 1 Mona Moonlight has three wins in nine starts. Her last two races have been for trainer Goop, and she finished a good second on March 15th. 12 Jessie's Girl has shown good form lately and won shortly before the finish in the last run. Chases the fourth win in a row.

5 Illfindmywayhome is not completely reliable and made an early mistake in the last comeback race. He scored a good victory in a fast time before that. 1 Kia Ora has put in several strong performances for trainer Kylin Blom. She returned from a break in the last run and finished to a nice third place. 4 Omega Superstar came in fourth on March 1st, but has since taken two straight and easy victories. She did it tough when she won on March 17th. 8 Let it be V.P. has won eight of its 18 starts. Was second in a qualifier on February 9th and comes from a nice second spot.

3 Global Education started with two straight wins, then performed well with a mistake finishing third. Comes from a good third spot. 4 Ninetta Boko is waiting for her first win but has shown good capacity. Would have finished second behind the talented Fiftyfour without a mistake at the end on December 14th. 1 Knickers Sisu has won half of her four starts. She got locked in with energy left when finishing fourth two starts back. Early contender here. 5 F.B.I. won easily in the lead on March 8th and didn't find room after an inside trip in the last race.

5 Capitano comes from a good second spot, previously won three in a row. Capable horse, making his first start in Sweden now and will have driver Björn Goop in the sulky. 6 Dart Kronos started out promisingly with two straight wins and was unlucky in his third start, getting locked in with plenty left in the tank despite a mistake. 11 Winchester has been at least second in five starts for his current trainer (three wins). He was a strong second last time out despite an early mistake. 7 Say No More Zaz is gifted. He was an impressive second two starts back and last time out he came back well after a mistake. Resumes from a spell now.

5 Smile Silvio has won six out of nine starts and comes from a convincing V75 victory. Tough and consistent, top chance to win. 1 Invisible Sun is a talented horse. Resumed from a longer pause (and for a new trainer) in the last run. He finished to comfortable win. 6 Västerbo Maharani is mainly known for his strong finish. He spurted well to second after a layoff in his last start. Early contender in this race. 4 Jean P.Hill performs well when at his best, and three of his five victories so far came with driver Kontio.

5 Hail Mary was the runner-up in last year's Elitloppet. Was impressive when he won last year's comeback and will probably be hard to beat again this season. A top contender. 3

Milliondollarrhyme was scored an impressive win from the front last time out, controlling the race from the lead. Opens quickly and likes this short distance. 8 Stoletheshow is a talented horse when in top form. Won from the outside leader in the last run, taking control in the final turn. 4 Click Bait is an effective sprinter who uses to open fast behind the gate. Won in the lead two starts back.

4 Mizai can open fast, likes short races and is in good form. Was unlucky with plenty of energy left in last week's V75 race. The top pick here. 1 Crown Wise As has the right attitude and has won seven races out of 19 starts. Won last time out after a layoff. 3 Elsztain finished well to second last time over the same distance. Has a good starting position and is an early contender here. 8 Kash Keeper has great ability, won three in a row last autumn. Was a good second after a pause last time out, and should be considered here.
