8 Don Fanucci Zet won an elimination heat to Elitloppet and the Hugo Åberg Memorial last year. A world-class horse in his seasonal debut, despite starting from post position eight, he should have top chance. 1 Gooner had a strong year last season with six wins in 13 starts. He is quick out of the gate and has a perfect starting position. He is expected to be in the mix directly. 7 Missle Hill faded a bit towards the end of his seasonal debut, but he should be sharper now. He is a strong candidate to finish in the top three. 2 Hazard Boko was weak in his seasonal debut and was subsequently scratched - place chance with this nice number.

13 Salte Fanden broke stride 450 meters from the finish two starts back, but showed good speed after that. He was rewarded for his good form in his last race and should have a good chance to score a new win here. 1 Olsims Ragnar has a good starting position and can open fast. If he can take the lead, he may be able to hold on for the win. 5 Slotts Tore did the work on the outside during the final lap in his last race and was only narrowly beaten. He is a good horse and should be considered early. 2 Ava Modde is making the first start since October 2021. Is gifted and should be followed directly.

8 Green Mamba has not yet won this year, but has performed well in every race against tough horses. Starting from a favorable position, she is our pick in an open race. 6 Joy Alissa is quick out of the gate and performed well from behind the leader two starts ago. With two races under her belt after a layoff, she should be considered. 9 Listas Thaitanic caused an upset win in her last race and showed good form. If she can get a good trip behind other horses, she could very well win again here. 2 StinaAlvina Zonett has been performing at her best under the saddle recently. Up and down, but she is one of several outsiders in the race.

RACE 7, V64-4

Auto 2140

7 Månlykke A.M. made his seasonal debut last time out in Gävle and looked good, even though he had to settle for second place. He should be sharper now and is an obvious top pick. 8 B.W.Rune continued to show great form after an early mistake in the last race. We believe he can be a challenger here with the right journey. 5 Bellfaks has not been able to put it together in a couple of races. However, his underlying ability is high and he should not be overlooked here. 9 Gorm is making his seasonal debut. He won five out of eight races last year and is heading towards an interesting season - an outsider.

3 Lannem Stella won most of her races as a three-year-old last season. She finished second in her seasonal debut as a big favorite, but with that race under her belt, everything points to a win from a good starting position now. 6 Suså Ö.K. had an inside run in her seasonal debut last time out and finished strongly when finding room. She will be in the mix for the top spots. 2 Åse Mona scored an outstanding win at Färjestad two races ago. It will be a bit tougher for her now, but she is has got a nice number behind the gate. 11 Järvsökalla made two mistakes in her last race and was not at her best. She can beat many of her competitors if she goes faultless now.

8 Global Dash finished strongly last time out and was not far from extending its winning streak. Poor draw, but has a great chance with the right journey. 4 Vichel J.C. has been a bit up and down lately. Positive performance for second place at Bollnäs but not as sharp last time out. Has the ability to win. 9 Grand Canyon Sisu makes an interesting comeback. A seven-year-old horse that has only made 16 starts in his life and won eight of them. Should not be discounted. 3 Ceboruco has shown that he is really good every now and then. Will be driven by Ulf Ohlsson this time - an outsider.
