2 Mehsmerise ended last year with a win in this class over today's 1200 dt. Our pick despite being upgraded to her maximum handicap mark. 4 Spoonful Of Sugar has dropped further in the weights ahead of her seasonal debut and last year's win came under today's conditions. 7 Soup or Sonic ran decently in her only performance as a two-year-old in a competitive maiden race. Has a good chance if she has wintered well. 6 Rhubarb Ripple was consistent and good last season, and today's conditions should suit her perfectly. Could be a contender for the win.

5 Scarlett won the Oaks and the Jockey Club's Breeding Race as a three-year-old. Gets a two kilo weight advantage with a promising apprentice in this seasonal debut. A strong contender. 1 Sam won last year's three races over this 2400 dt and has a strong jockey in the season debut, which is an advantage. An early choice. 4 Tille In Action won twice last year over a middle distance but stands this longer distance too. Possible challenger. 2 Rangoon was third in the Derby Trial as a three-year-old but was scratched from the Derby. Possible even though he is ridden with overweight.

6 Uchchaihshravas was outstanding in the debut at Bro Park and then tried luck in Dubai. Is very gifted and has a good chance for the new trainer. 1 Ode To My Mother was ambitiously matched as a two-year-old and should be the main threat to the stablemate despite being sparingly raced last year. 4 Trollfjord did decently last year but carries a lot of weight in the seasonal debut despite a full apprentice jockey weight allowance. Still has good place chance. 5 Moneytalks won on the Jägersro dirt track last year and could be in the mix despite stepping up in distance.

8 Mr Weeknd had some decent performances as a two-year-old. Nice task in this open maiden race. Our pick. 7 Déjà Vu ended last year with a positive second place behind stablemate American Zodiac in the Kriterium Consolation. A serious challenger. 4 Ayani was a good second to Footfall in the only race as a two-year-old. Should stand this longer distance and has to be considered in the seasonal debut. 3 Canadian Kylie is likely the third choice of the Reuterskiöld Jr. stable in this maiden race. However, a possible outsider here.

6 Duca di Como has been placed in 29 of his 33 career starts, including 20 victories. He should have top chance in this Spring Mile. 3 Pusjkin has won four of his five career victories over the current 1600 dt on the Jägersro dirt. He could challenge if the favorite fails. 5 Wolf of Vancouver defeated Duca Di Como in last year's only victory in the Valley Chapel Memorial. He is a possible challenger. 4 Plantstepsdream is a capable miler who opens very quickly on his day. He will probably be in the if in good condition.

3 Irish Action improved six kilograms as a four-year-old, which included a victory in the Zawawi Cup (L). 6 Mountain defeated El Gaunche in the season debut over the short 1000 dt, and was also ahead of stablemate Irish Action. Contender. 2 Zamson Zaid had some strong performances last year against the sprint elite in Malmö. Jockey Oliver Wilson in this season debut is particularly interesting. 4 Amon Ra won under similar conditions last year, albeit against easier opponents. It will be difficult to win, but he has the potential to finish in the top three on its day.
