9 Västerbo Ajax faced perhaps not the toughest competition in his last race, but left a good impression. He has won half of his ten starts so far. 2 Always Face makes an interesting debut for a new trainer. He hasn't raced since October, but has a good starting position and should be considered right away. 6 Anytimeisnow had a strong horse on the outside of him two starts back, but was still able to win impressively. He should be considered early in this race. 11 Madagascar has a tough starting position in his first race of the year, but in case of quick pace he is likely to pass many horses right away.

9 Stormyrans Erkki has won his last two races from the lead. If he gets away well, it could be an offensive strategy again here. 10 Klack Molle made a mistake after 150 meters in his last start, but came back well. Returning now after a few months' break and a solid contender. 1 Guli Em runs consistently without winning too often. The draw is good and a top-three finish is within reach here. 3 Grådö Bo won despite an early mistake in his last race. Should be considered behind the favorites here.

7 Arras Beluga Wine will test three laps for the first time. It's a type that usually maintains good speed all the way to the finish line, so there shouldn't be any worries. 4 Fetter Tir won six out of ten starts last year. Now he has had a winter break and trained well - he should definitely be considered here. 15 Gianluca D.K. makes his first start for a new trainer. He enjoys long races and has previously won over three laps. He could go far. 9 Light on Me galloped in the battle for second place on the home stretch last time. An outsider.

4 Linnjerka is our pick in this cold-blooded race. She finished strongly to take third place after an early gallop at Örebro and likes the short distance. 10 Brolotta is, of course, a strong contender, but this number over the short distance is not the easiest. She will be in the mix if things work out for her. 5 Valle Brisa was third behind our pick when they met at Bjerke in mid-March. She will be in the mix for a place among the top three once again. 9 Lykkje Prinsessa has been improving her form recently and should not be underestimated.

3 Byron Face gets the top pick from a suitable starting position. He finished strongly as fourth last time out and here he could score his first win of the year. 12 My Dreams won half of his starts as a three-year-old. He had an easy time in his season debut, leading all the way, but it will be tougher from a worse position now. 6 Need'em made a good impression when he won from the front on Jägersro in October. He can open well from the start and should be considered directly in this seasonal debut. 2 My Honky Tonk Man is better than his recent results suggest. Should be watched after a layoff.

9 Dream Sensation had a troublesome race from a bad starting position last time, and we won't take that race too harshly. He's matched in V75 competition before that - our pick. 7 Kinky Boots makes an interesting seasonal debut. He's a capable horse and a winner - with 13 victories in 29 starts. 2 Chestnut hasn't raced since October. He won from the front two starts back, tricky number two in the circular start now. 3 Jaguar C.Boko has been a non-starter since last time. He has a nice position since he's fast from the start - an outsider.
